

AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST INTERNATIONAL

REFERENCES FOR AL WHITTINGHILL

“Since the day I met Al Whittinghill over 30 years ago (when Jack and I invited him and Mary Madeline to come on staff at Precept Ministries International) his passion and zeal for holiness and prayer have never changed. From that time on, I knew God would use him greatly wherever he went because his message is so rich and so Biblical. When my dear brother speaks, I want him to pause almost after every statement so I might savor its richness, and ponder its truth. He is truly a man of God for this hour, that we the church, might be prepared to meet our God.”

Kay Arthur, Precept Ministries

“I have known Al Whittinghill for 10 years, and few men are as consistent in their Christian life as he is. This man has something to say that all of us need to hear.”

An unusually gifted and dynamic speaker that communicates God's Word in a vibrant and life-changing way. His character, depth of experience and practical approach to God's truth allow him to speak to a broad cross section of people.”

Phil Downer, Past President, C.B.M.C.

The late Dr. Vance Havner

“It is with great joy that I commend to you my personal friend and brother, Al Whittinghill. I have had the privilege to serve as his pastor for the last few years, and what a delight it has been. God has used him mightily on numerous occasions to speak to the First Baptist Church Woodstock family. We have always been challenged and encouraged by his ministry, and I know that you will as well. God has also strategically used him among our deacons and leadership to challenge in the area of revival, praying and seeking the face of God. I commend his ministry with no reservations whatsoever. Your church and your people will be blessed.”

Dr. Johnny Hunt
Pastor, First Baptist Church Woodstock, Georgia

“The focus of the Rev. Al Whittinghill's ministry is the local church. His heart's desire is once again for the revival fires to burn in it and to be channeled through it. I deeply appreciate the type of theology that produces men of his vision and zeal and makes his preaching powerful and effective. This preaching is expository in the finest of traditions, is Spirit-filled, aims at the heart and seeks a transformed life that makes a difference.”

Dr. Henry Krabbendam

“He is a dedicated, committed servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. He would be an asset to any Kingdom work.”

Rev. Peter Lord, Pastor, Park Avenue Baptist Church

“Al's message is undiluted. He preaches the Lordship of Christ and the power of a Spirit-filled life. I warmly recommend Al Whittinghill to God's people everywhere.”

The late Dr. Stephen Olford, Encounter Ministries

“My friend and brother Al Whittinghill has been touched with a live coal. He truly points the way and also leads the way. “A man whose heart the Lord has touched” 1 Sam.10:26. Hear him.”

The Late Dr. Leonard Ravenhill

“I was brought to faith in Jesus Christ as a youth. At that time theological liberalism dominated most of the churches of upstate New York where I was raised. Now, sixty some years later, classical liberalism is all but dead and evangelicalism pervades much of the nation. But, Alas! Evangelicals seem to be as lacking in purity, passion, and power as liberals were then. At a time when the voice of the prophet of God is desperately needed in the church there are alarmingly few who even call the church to repentance, and fewer who do so under “The Burden of the Lord”. Notable among this small band of exceptions – mighty men of God – is Al Whittinghill. Listen to him! He has the Father's heart for His wayward church. Give him platform! He will voice the cry of the Holy Spirit for purity, passion, and power in your midst. Turn him loose among your people! And when you do so, expect them to fall in love afresh with Jesus Christ and true religion!”

Dr. Richard Owen Roberts, President, International Awakening Ministries

“I have had the privilege of being ministered to under the anointed ministry of Al Whittinghill. Al is powerful and obviously led by the Holy Spirit. I believe his ministry is on the cutting edge of what the Lord is doing”

Jay Sekulow, Chief Counsel, American Center for Law & Justice

“Al Whittinghill speaks with the cadence, eloquence and power of the revivalists who stepped on God's platform over a century ago and changed the world. Yet, he preaches a message that is totally relevant to the complexities of our day. Al challenges my mind, awakens my heart and holds my attention while proclaiming the unchanging, living Word of God. I commend my dear brother to you with my highest recommendation!”

Jan Silvius, Conference Speaker, Author

“Al Whittinghill is a man who has a strong, deep abiding conviction that the Bible will provide the answers for everyday life. He has a unique ability to share this conviction in a fresh convincing way. I highly recommend Al to any church for Bible conferences, revival meetings, pulpit supply or missionary conferences. You will hear expository Biblical preaching and teaching at it's finest.”

Dr. Charles Stanley, Pastor First Baptist Church Atlanta

“It has been a privilege to sit under Al Whittinghill's ministry. Not only has he a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures, but also he is able to share what the Lord is doing in his own life, making the Word come alive. Al is a man who knows God means what He says and applies it in his own life and in so doing blesses many. I can highly recommend his ministry.”

Mrs. Cam Townsend, Co-founder, Wycliffe Bible Translators

“As one personally burdened for the instructional needs of the body of Christ, I rejoice when I observe the growing influence of teachers such as Al Whittinghill. With an unswerving commitment to the Scriptures and a heart committed to service, Al is poised to influence the church at large for years to come. I commend Al and his ministry of teaching without reservation.”

Bruce Wilkinson

“I commend Al Whittinghill and his ministry to your church or organization. I believe you will be greatly edified and challenged as you are exposed to the burning message that is upon his heart and which he is able to deliver with such Biblical clarity and unction..”

George Verwer, Operation Mobilization

“Strong and anointed Biblical preaching in a contemporary context, that stirs both heart and mind, is a rarity in our times. Al Whittinghill has been greatly gifted by God to fill this immense need. The Bible was never meant to be dull - Al Whittinghill's preaching is a persuasive demonstration of that fact. The evidence does not stop with his presentation but continues on with changed lives.”
